Those engaged in the arts have long understood that God exceeds the grasp of language. This module will examine artistic approaches to theological expression, and explore how visual arts, poetry, music, liturgy, buildings and even the world around us reflect and shape our relationship to God.

- Part of LCT's postgraduate programme in Theology, Ministry and Mission
- Led by Canon Dr Ce Pacitti
- Designed to offer insights for ministry
- Small group, seminar-style discussion
- Weekly reading with no assignments
- The course assumes a level of interest in the arts and some previous theological study.
- Bursaries available to eligible auditors - Please enquire!
