This module introduces the study of Christian tradition and theology. The module aims to develop connections between personal faith and the ways Christian thinking has developed over the centuries. The aim is to start building the skills and confidence to pursue your own deeper understanding through the effective use of prayer, Biblical studies, and other forms of Christian scholarship.

- Part of LCT's first-year undergraduate programme in Theology, Ministry and Mission
- Led by Dr Caleb Gordon, LCT's Director of Postgraduate Study
- A blend of lecture and small-group discussion
- Weekly reading with no assignments
- Bursaries may be available
